Praxis Tests at Prometric

(NOTE: For more specific details, please refer to the Praxis information available only online at www.ets.org/praxis.)

Registration:
Registration for a test at the Columbus Prometric testing center is done online through ETS at www.ets.org/praxis. DO NOT call Prometric to register for your tests. Although Praxis I tests can be taken at any time, there are some date limits on when Praxis II tests can be taken. Please consult www.ets.org/praxis for specific dates.

Location:
The Columbus Prometric testing center is located at 933 High St., Suite 130B in Worthington. It is located approximately 1½ miles south of I-270. Their phone number is 614-431-2083.

Hours:
Prometric is open Monday through Saturday. Their hours on Monday through Thursday are 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. and on Friday and Saturday from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Tests can ONLY be taken when they have been schedule in advance through ETS. You need to arrive at least 30 minutes early to check in and participate in the tutorial.

Cost:
The test fees listed are inclusive of all the testing costs. There is no separate registration fee like there may be for the paper and pencil test registration. Payment can be made by credit card, bank check, money order, eCheck, or PayPal. More information about payment is available during the online registration process.

Other Tips:
• You are not allowed to bring any personal items into the testing room with you except your ID (see website for appropriate documents). Blank paper and pencils are provided by the testing center.
• You may take a break during your testing time, but your clock does NOT stop.
• The testing center is able to work with students who need accommodations. Please review the information on the ETS website for further details as this MUST be arranged in advance.

This information sheet is not meant to contain everything you need to know about the test. You are strongly urged to review the materials about the test and procedures at www.ets.org/praxis.

KGHReichley

September, 2012