

Otterbein Coaches of the Year

Sixth-year football Head Coach Joe Loth was selected as the 2008 OAC Co-Coach-of-the Year (sharing with Head Coach Barry Wulf from Wilmington) as voted by their peers. Loth led the Cardinals to postseason play for the first time in program history with a 9-1 (8-1 OAC) record. This is the second time he has been awarded this honor.

Sixth-year Assistant Coach Tim Doup has been chosen as the 2008 Assistant Coach-of-the-Year, as selected by the 10 OAC head coaches. Doup, who serves as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach has led the Cardinals to the top of the conference, currently ranking third in total offense, second scoring offense and first downs. The Cardinals also lead the Conference in fourth-down conversions. Doup is the first Otterbein assistant coach to be awarded this honor.

Otterbein's Head Women's Soccer Coach Brandon Koons was named the 2008 Women's Soccer Coach-of-the-Year as selected by the ten OAC head coaches. Koons, finishing his 10th season at Otterbein, has led the Cardinals to three (OAC) regular-season championships (2002, 2005 and 2006) and two OAC Tournament titles (2004 and 2005). In 2006, Koons passed the 100-win plateau and currently is the OAC career wins leader with 119.
