

"Time in a Bottle" Fundraiser for the Courtright

March 13, 8 p.m., Riley Auditorium, Battelle Fine Arts Center

$10 for adults and $5 for students (free for children 6 and under). Refreshments will be served. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Freshman Musical Theatre majors under the direction of Dennis Davenport and Stella Hiatt Kane, combined with the Freshman Acting majors, under the direction of Ed Vaughan, will perform a retrospective of popular music and show tunes from the 1960's and 70's as a fundraiser for the Otterbein College Courtright Memorial Library. For more information, please contact Lois Szudy, Library Director, Otterbein College Courtright Memorial Library at 823-1414.

"Diverse Wolds Connect @ the Courtright Memorial Library"

April 15, 3:30 p.m.

Free. Refreshments will be contributed by Friends of the Library.

The program, in keeping with the theme of National Library Week will have panelists from international, women, black studies, GLBTQ and disability perspectives. The library is interested in hosting events where groups can talk and discuss diverse issues. More specific information about the panelists and program will be available closer to the date of the event.

Co-sponsored by the Friends of the Courtright Memorial Library and the Erin McKenzie Virtual Welcoming Space of the Courtright Memorial Library.
