

CONCERT CHOIR TOUR '17

The Otterbein University Concert Choir will perform in the southeastern U.S. Feb. 24-March 3 for the choir's annual performance tour. Many thanks to Concert Choir Alumni Natalee McReynolds, Doug MacCallum, and Lisa Boyer-Robertson, who have assisted the choir by offering to host and help find host families during the trip. Join these alumni in the audience when Concert Choir performs in your area! The choir will perform seven concerts on tour, including evening performances in Norwood, VA; Beaufort, SC; Charlotte, NC; Bluffton, SC; Atlanta, GA; Nashville, TN; and Westerville, OH. All performances are free and open to the public.

The choir will perform the local premieres of a new work, Please Stay, by Jake Runestad. The piece is based on a poem that offers encouragement and understanding to those suffering from depression. The choir will also perform contemporary pieces from Central Asia, including a arrangements of traditional folks songs as well as works that celebrating Mongolian horses, the beauty of the Himalayas, and the excitement of Bollywood. In addition, the choir will perform masterworks by Scarlatti and Britten, and works by Kim Andréson and Stacey.
