Mission Statement and Conceptual Framework

Mission Statement
The professional education unit of Otterbein University is committed to providing a coherent, developmentally-based teacher education program that prepares teachers to create and work within learning communities which maximize the potential of all learners. The program promotes collaborative learning and critical reflection as a way to develop a community of life-long learners who can respect diverse perspectives, make informed decisions, and be responsive to the changing needs of children in our society.

We Believe In

- The Power of Knowledge
  Effective teachers are knowledgeable and see themselves and their students as life-long learners. Our graduates will be able to make informed decisions based on complex data.

- The Interdependency of Pedagogy and Content
  Knowledge is not a series of discrete bits of information. Effective teachers help their students see relationships among different areas of study and their application to the real world. In our curriculum, liberal arts and professional courses are intentionally connected. In the same manner, pedagogy and content often are addressed together.

- The Potential of All Children
  Every child deserves to be taught by quality teachers who believe that each child is capable of learning. The Otterbein teacher education program provides its candidates with the knowledge, skills and dispositions for creating learning environments that are developmentally responsive for each of the students they teach.

- The Richness of Diversity
  Our program prepares teachers to accept, honor and enhance the diversity within the school environment. Diversity includes but is not limited to ethnicity, gender, social class, sexual orientation, and special needs.

- The Possibilities of Technology
  As teaching and learning become more complex, the effective use of technology within the classroom becomes even more essential. During their teacher education program, Otterbein students will not only use technology as an integral part of their own professional preparation and see technology modeled for classroom productivity, but they will also learn how to use technology effectively in their classroom.

- The Necessity of Reflection
  The transition from being a student to becoming a teacher requires a great deal of reflection and introspection on the part of teacher education candidates. In order to truly discover their teacher persona, teacher education candidates must take a critical look at what they believe about teaching and learning throughout their program and strive to incorporate those values in their own teaching.

- The Merit of Experiential Learning
  Otterbein is committed to continuous and progressive field experiences. The program exposes teacher education candidates to a variety of educational settings.

- The Importance of Accountability
  Our program is committed to the formative and summative assessment of the knowledge, dispositions, and skills of teacher education candidates in order to assure that graduates from the program are effective and qualified teachers. Furthermore, the unit will use the information obtained from these assessments to change, alter, and/or modify the program so that the quality is maintained.

Model for Teacher Education at Otterbein
The Education Department serves as the professional education unit of Otterbein University, providing professional courses for pre-service teachers through:

- A four-year undergraduate program for Early Childhood, Middle Childhood, and AYA/Multi-age Licensure;
- A post-baccalaureate licensure-only program for Early Childhood, Middle Childhood, and AYA/Multi-age Licensure, built on the undergraduate teacher education program;
A part-time Master of Arts in Teaching program designed to provide a graduate Middle Childhood Licensure (4-9) and Special Education Licensure (K-12) programs that are responsive to the needs of working, second-career adults. Building on a liberal arts foundation that emphasizes multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary ways of knowing, professional education requires candidates and graduate students to examine their values and actions in view of current research and best practice. Coordinated field experiences in diverse settings across the pre-service programs provide a realistic setting to test theories and professional competencies against the cognitive and affective needs of children in schools.

The professional education unit also offers continuing professional development for certified/licensed teachers through a Master of Arts in Education degree program, with majors in Reading, Special Education, and Curriculum & Instruction. The MAE program is designed to develop professional empowerment through study, research, and reflection. Both the MAE program design and the scheduling of classes serve the needs of practicing, certified/licensed teachers.

Purposes and Goals of Teacher Education

The Teacher Education Program at Otterbein University is based on the philosophy that a liberal education is best for teachers. The broad aim of teacher education is to help licensure candidates acquire knowledge, develop skills, and exhibit dispositions which they will need in order to be contributing members of society and successful teachers of children.

The faculty of the Teacher Education Program have adopted standards and critical dispositions to inform ongoing program development and to guide the assessment of candidate progress throughout the program. These standards are aligned with external accrediting agencies such as NCATE/CAEP, the Ohio Department of Education, and the Ohio Board of Regents, based on standards developed by InTASC. However, these standards are informed by the Mission Statement and Conceptual Framework of Otterbein’s Teacher Education Program and provide a strong basis for the preparation of teacher candidates who can positively impact the education of PK-12 students.

The Interstate Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (InTASC) is a consortium of state education agencies, higher education institutions, and national educational organizations dedicated to the reform of the education, licensing, and on-going professional development of teachers. Created in 1987, InTASC’s primary constituency is state education agencies responsible for teacher licensing and professional development. Its work is guided by one basic premise: An effective teacher must be able to integrate content knowledge with pedagogical understanding to assure that all students learn and perform at high levels. The InTASC model core standards for licensing teachers represent those principles which should be present in all teaching regardless of the subject or grade level taught and serve as a framework for the systemic reform of teacher preparation and professional development.

Critical Dispositions
In addition to standards that guide the preparation and licensure of candidates' knowledge of content and ability to teach, candidates are also evaluated on critical dispositions essential for success in education. Critical Dispositions are defined by NCATE/CAEP as “attitudes, beliefs, values, and commitments that influence behaviors.” Ten of these are vital themes in the Otterbein University Teacher education program. We expect these dispositions to be evidenced in the field as candidates practice their professional skills. Because our program is developmental, we intentionally model these dispositions in every course and provide guided practice for candidates as they grow professionally. Your dispositions are assessed in every field experience. The Critical Dispositions scoring rubric is on pages 12-13.

Policies, Procedures, Information, and Resources
This is not meant to be an exhaustive list of policies, procedures, information, and resources. Consult the University Catalog and other official University documents for further information.

Academic Appeals
The following sequential steps should be followed in appeal if a student is convinced that he or she is a victim of unlawful discrimination or of decisions arrived at in a prejudiced or capricious manner: 1. Discuss the matter with the professor involved. 2. Discuss the matter with the Chair of the Education Department. 3. Present evidence in writing, then discuss the matter with the Dean of the appropriate school or his/her delegate. 4. Present evidence in writing, then discuss the matter with the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs or his/her delegate. 5. Appeal in writing with supporting evidence to the Appeals Council. Details regarding the appeal process are available from the Office of Academic Affairs.

Academic Support Center

Advising
Post-baccalaureate students are advised by an Education Advisor. Students may change advisors with the permission of the new advisor. Please work closely with your advisor to ensure appropriate progress through the program.

Attendance Policy for Classes and Field Experiences
Teachers are responsible for the safety and well being of pupils; therefore, reliability is an essential quality for teachers. The attendance policies for professional education will emphasize the importance of personal responsibility and attempt to help teacher education candidates develop a pattern of responsible behavior.
The attendance policies listed shall apply for courses and field experiences offered by the Education Department; however, professors may further define or alter these general policies by writing an attendance policy in the course outline.

Class Attendance
1. Attendance is expected at all class sessions. A record of student attendance shall be kept by the instructor and attendance will be a factor in arriving at the final grade for courses in education.
2. Specific attendance policies for each course will be included in the course syllabus.

Field Experience Student teachers and field experience students must notify both the cooperating teacher (or school) and the University supervisor in advance, if possible, of absence for any cause. Days missed in student teaching and field experience may be added to the completion date of the experience. University supervisors may excuse no more than two days absence for good cause without extending the completion date. Days missed in field experiences will not be counted in hours accumulated. Excessive or irresponsible absences may result in withdrawing the student from the experience. Falsification of timesheets may be grounds for dismissal from the program.
Change of Major
Requirements for internal Change of Major to Education (30 semester hours or less from all institutions):
• Post-evaluation 2.5 overall GPA from all institutions
• Permission of Education Department

Requirements for internal Change of Major to Education (more than 30 semester hours from all institutions):

College Level Examination Program (CLEP)
According to the University Catalog, students are not permitted to take CLEP exams once they have reached senior status (135 or more earned hours). Also, students who have already earned Bachelor's degrees are not permitted to take CLEP exams. None of the hours may be used to fulfill the University's residency requirement. (See University Catalog for more information)

Documentation Style
The preferred style for all Education courses is APA (American Psychological Association). Exceptions to this policy will be clearly defined in course syllabi.

Field Experiences
See pp. 14-15 for information on field experiences.

Job Search Assistance—Center for Career and Professional Development
The Otterbein Center for Career and Professional Development provides a menu of services including resume-building, cover letter writing, practice interviews, and job search assistance. In addition, staff will advise students on assembling a strong credential file, the collection of documents that support your application (transcripts, letters of reference, test scores, etc.). All students will prepare and manage their own credential file. All student teachers are required to attend an orientation session at the Center for Career and Professional Development to learn about the job search process.

Licensure Testing
To become a licensed teacher in Ohio’s schools, a person must successfully complete required licensure tests: Ohio Assessments for Educators-OAE, Praxis II, and/or ACTFL-LTI (foreign language candidates) examinations. Candidates are eligible for the examinations once 75% of the coursework in the licensure program including methods is completed. Students will be expected to take tests covering professional education and curriculum content or specialization. The most recent list of licensure test qualifying scores for specified licenses in Ohio is available in the Education Department Office. Study materials are available from the individual testing services. Some printed study materials are available in the Education Department Office and the Library. ACTFL-LTI guidelines and preparation materials can be found at www.languagetesting.com.

Out-of-State Teacher Licenses
Because states determine their own teacher education programs, licensure may differ from state to state. It is the duty of the student to see that the special requirements of states other than Ohio are met. Information on licensure may be obtained from the Division of Teacher Education and Certification, Department of Education of the state in question. Teacher licensure is simplified in many states through Interstate Reciprocity Agreements and on graduation from institutions accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE/CAEP). Most states require that teachers pass a teacher competency test prior to licensure.

Portfolio Requirement
To be recommended for licensure, teacher candidates are required to submit an electronic portfolio that documents their mastery of department standards. Elements of the portfolio will be developed throughout the program, with completion during student teaching. Student Teaching Seminar instructors will provide support and feedback for students, and faculty members will be assigned to evaluate the final portfolio. The electronic platform for the portfolio is an online service called TaskStream.

Significant Improvement Clause
Candidates who are transferring low undergraduate grade point averages in from other institutions may encounter significant obstacles when trying to raise their overall or content area GPA to 2.5. For these candidates, the Significant Improvement Clause has been developed. If a transfer student has earned a 3.0 or higher overall GPA at Otterbein over 24 semester hours and a 3.0 content GPA in a minimum of 3 content courses their area of intended licensure, they will have met the grade point average criterion for admission to Teacher Education.

Transcript Evaluation
Once all official transcripts are received by the University, the Chair, Department of Education will conduct a formal transcript evaluation. Only courses approved by the Chair, Department of Education will receive transfer credit.

Transfer Students
Requirements for all external transfers as intended Education majors:
- Post-evaluation 2.5 overall GPA from all institutions, AND
- Post-evaluation 2.75 GPA in concentration/teaching area(s), AND

Field Experiences and Clinical Practice

Field experiences serve an important socialization function in Otterbein’s teacher education program. Field experiences are based in schools and are designed to help students decide whether teaching is or is not an appropriate career choice; to develop skills in applying methods and management techniques; and to observe teachers executing various roles during the school day. Otterbein’s program provides a number of different field experiences. Students are exposed to urban, suburban, and sometimes rural settings. They are encouraged to work with culturally diverse populations at several grade levels. Across these field experiences, students observe, plan, instruct, manage, and evaluate within the context of current practice.

Field experiences and student teaching assignments are made in public and private schools and agencies within convenient travel distance from the University. Written agreements between the University and cooperating schools and agencies are required, and placements are made in those schools and agencies that have agreements with the University. Students are expected to provide their own transportation.

Field experience assignments start in the first course (EDUC 1600) and culminate in student teaching (see Chart of Field Experiences and Clinical Practice in Teacher Education). Student teaching is a full school day for a full semester. Students should carry no other academic coursework during the student teaching term, but activities courses may continue so long as they meet outside of school hours.

Transfer students who have completed field experiences at other institutions may have hours included on their Otterbein record. Students must request records (evaluations, timesheet, etc.) from the other institution be sent to the Education Department to verify the hours.

Students who have documented, supervised experience with children or youth, not associated with a university course, may apply to have those hours included in their field experience record. Non-credit field experience forms are available in the Education Department.

Fingerprinting and Background Checks are required for all field experiences and must remain current (issued within one year) during the entire field experience. On-campus services will be available each term or students may contact any WebCheck location or police department.

Note: Post-baccalaureate candidates have the option of registering for EDUC 5970 MAT Student Teaching in lieu of the undergraduate equivalent.

Non-Traditional Clinical Practice Opportunities

Non-traditional opportunities are open to students in any licensure area. Contact the Education Office or the faculty member listed below for more information about these programs. All opportunities are contingent on placement availability and faculty recommendation.

- Student Teaching in England
- Student Teaching in Philadelphia, PA
- Student Teaching in Espanola, New Mexico
- Student Teaching in China
- Year-long Internship Alternative to Student Teaching

University sponsored off-campus opportunities are described in the Otterbein University Course Catalog
Chart of Field Experiences and Clinical Practice in Teacher Education
(Additional field experiences may be included in individual programs and/or content areas.)
