

class title

I Sing Because I'm Happy

finding your voice with Johnny Steiner and the Great American Songbook

class description

Johnny Steiner (class of 1996) has been a full-time, working musician since the day he graduated Otterbein 25 years ago. In this positive and uplifting class, you will be inspired to find your own voice - both speaking and singing - regardless of your prior musical or public speaking experience. Each session, Johnny will explore a different topic and highlight some well-known songs of a celebrated popular composer. A self-described 'musician, fitness-enthusiast, and positivist,' Johnny Steiner's I Sing Because I'm Happy is not to be missed!

class breakdown

- day #1: "Voice 101" / Richard Rodgers
- day #2: "Presentation, Posture, and Body Language" / George Gershwin
- day #3: "Striving For Excellence, Not Perfection" / Cole Porter
- day #4: "Prayer and Connection Through Music" / Irving Berlin
- day #5: "I Sing Because I'm Happy" concert

session dates

Wednesdays in May 2023 from 9am-11:30am 05/03, 05/10, 05/17, 05/24, and 05/31

location

Church of the Messiah, 51 North State Street in Uptown Westerville

registration and more information

www.otterbein.edu/lifelonglearning or call 614-823-1650
learn more about Johnny at www.johnnysteiner.com

Would you like to sing with more confidence?

Do you shudder at the sound of your own voice?

Are you ever frightened to speak in front of groups?

Want to sing better in your church choir?

Do people ever tell you to 'speak up?'

Just what does your natural voice sound like?

Do you enjoy those Great American standards - the music of Sinatra, Tony Bennett, or Michael Bublé?