Part-Time Instructor – BIO 1010 Introduction to Cell and Molecular Biology Lab

POSITION INFORMATION:

Otterbein University seeks an Adjunct (part-time) Instructor in the Department of Biology and Earth Science to teach two sections of BIO 1010: Introduction to Cell and Molecular Biology Lab during the Autumn 2020 Semester, which runs from August 24-December 5. The lab sections meet on Thursdays from 11:30am-2:25 pm and 2:40-5:35 pm. The new adjunct instructor will work with two full-time instructors who will be teaching the other four laboratory sections for this course. An instructor meeting preparing for the labs will be held on Mondays from 12-1pm. The instructor will also need to hold one online office hour per lab per week. Instruction for all labs will be conducted online via Blackboard Collaborate Ultra.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

PhD and/or ABD in a field of Biology with a cell and molecular biology focus and previous teaching experience required.

ABOUT OTTERBEIN UNIVERSITY: Historically progressive. That is the hallmark of Otterbein University and those connected to this private university nestled in the picturesque, historic Uptown Westerville district in central Ohio. Otterbein has set the pace by providing an educational experience that is progressive, innovative and inclusive. Students come from towns throughout Ohio, as well as many states and multiple countries, enriching the campus through their individual and collective diversity. Integrity, humane values and an inherently just, moral compass have guided Otterbein's forward-thinking vision and actions—from its curriculum to its responsibilities as a member of academic, regional and global communities.

As a university that educates students of various ethnic and cultural backgrounds, we value a diverse faculty, staff, and administration and seek to create as diverse a pool of candidates as possible. The University is an Equal Opportunity Employer and does not discriminate against persons on the basis of race, religion, color, ancestry, age, disability, genetic information, gender, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, medical condition, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, covered veteran status, or any other protected status.

TO APPLY: Send all inquiries and a copy of your CV to Dr. Jennifer Bennett, Chair, Department of Biology and Earth Science (jbennett@otterbein.edu). Review of applications will continue until position is filled.
