

Equine Pre-Veterinary/ Pre-Graduate Studies and Equine Veterinary Technology

“ Having the opportunity to conduct an independent project with the choice of an expert mentor was one of the reasons I initially chose Otterbein four years ago, as it is a unique and valuable experience. Instead of just learning the scientific method and processes of research in the classroom, I was able to execute them and investigate my own hypotheses. ”

INTERNSHIP SITES

- Equine Veterinary Technology students choose from over 170 approved veterinary placement sites for their required internship semester coordinated by Columbus State Community College.
- For students intending to apply to veterinary school, it is mandatory to complete internships/work hours with veterinary clinics. Often this is done in the summer outside of Otterbein credit. Work with your advisor if you need help locating a site. Students have interned at numerous sites within central Ohio as well as out of state.
