

“ I have a passion for my work, public speaking, and being a leader in the pursuit of hidden and misunderstood knowledge so the experience was invigorating and fulfilling. The drafting, finalizing, submission, and presentation of this project post-class had the continual support of Professor Schwartz along with my advisors, professors Tammy Birk and Carla Corroto. They all followed me through the journey and shared in my success and excitement. These professors continue to be of support as I seek to pursue further professional goals using my research. ”
